

SAVE THE DATE
WILLIAM J. DONOVAN AWARD®

OCTOBER 18, 2025

WILLIAM J. DONOVAN AWARD® RECIPIENTS

1961	The Honorable Allen W. Dulles	1993	Dr. Carl F. Eifler
1963	The Honorable John J. McCloy	1995	The Honorable William E. Colby
1964	Lieutenant General William W. Quinn, USA	2004	Dr. Ralph J. Bunche
1965	President Dwight D. Eisenhower	2005	Judge William H. Webster
1966	The Earl Mountbatten of Burma	2009	General David H. Petraeus, USA
1967	The Honorable Everett McKinley Dirksen	2010	H. Ross Perot
1969	J. Russell Forgan	2011	Admiral Eric T. Olson, USN (Ret.)
1970	The Astronauts of Apollo 11	2012	The Honorable Robert M. Gates
1971	Ambassador David K.E. Bruce	2013	Admiral William H. McRaven, USN
1974	The Honorable William J. Casey	2014	The Honorable Leon E. Panetta
1977	Ambassador Robert D. Murphy	2015	Ambassador Hugh Montgomery
1979	His Excellency Jacques Chaban-Delmas	2016	General Norton A. Schwartz, USAF (Ret.)
1981	The Right Honourable Margaret Thatcher	2017	The Honorable Michael G. Vickers
1982	The Honorable John A. McCone	2018	The Honorable Gina C. Haspel
1983	The Honorable Richard Helms	2019	The Honorable James N. Mattis
1983	Sir William Stephenson	2022	The Honorable George J. Tenet
1986	President Ronald W. Reagan	2023	The Honorable William J. Burns
1991	President George H.W. Bush	2024	LTG Patrick M. Hughes, USA (Ret.)

The Office of Strategic Services (OSS) Society is a charitable organization that honors the historic accomplishments of the OSS during World War II, the first organized effort by the United States to implement a centralized system of strategic intelligence and the predecessor to the Central Intelligence Agency, the U.S. Special Operations Command, and the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research. It educates the American public about the importance of strategic intelligence and special operations to the preservation of freedom.
